

Door County, WI Travel Guide

Just a few hours ride from Chicago lies the peninsula of Door County, Wisconsin. It's the perfect weekend getaway for nature lovers, shopaholics, foodies, and thrill seekers. To help visitors make the most of their trip, I've pulled together this travel guide with my top recommendations.

SLEEP

To pamper yourself stay in the town of Ephraim at the Hillside Inn, an elegant and luxurious bed and breakfast perfect for a romantic getaway.

For the more adventurous sort camp in the picture perfect Peninsula State Park. Just be sure you make your reservation early spots book up fast!

House rentals in the towns of Sister Bay or Ephraim are the best option for families or large groups

DO

Explore the trail paths and light houses at the Ridges Sanctuary near the town of Bailey's Harbor.

Get active and rent a kayak or bike in Peninsula State Park and become one with nature!

Rent a boat with a big group of people and enjoy Door County's beautiful beaches and water fronts.

EAT

For breakfast you have to visit the famous Al Johnson's Swedish Restaurant and indulge in some lingonberry pancakes topped with whipped cream.

For speciality pizzas and fresh local salads try the Wild Tomato. The Cherry Walnut salad is my favorite.

To get an old diner feel stop at Wilson's Restaurant and Ice Cream Parlor. It's been open since 1906!

SHOP

Wander the streets of Fish Creek and visit boutiques filled with antiques, art, and clothing.

For those with a sweet tooth the Door County Confectionary is a visitor favorite with old fashioned candies.

Door County is surrounded by farms so stocking up on local produce for the ride home is a must. Specialties include apples and cherries!
