

New Orleans Travel Guide

One of the most unique cities in the United States is New Orleans. With a French flair the city is filled with amazing food and the best jazz you'll ever hear. It's a perfect weekend getaway so I've pulled together this travel guide with my top recommendations for the Big Easy!

SLEEP

For the best location stay in the French Quarter at the Chateau Hotel New Orleans, its near the heart of Jackson Square and Bourbon Street!

For those looking for a budget friendly option stay at the Fairchild House B&B. It's even got a beautiful porch to relax on.

If you're staying with a large group of people renting a house in the Garden District gets you the best deal in the prettiest locale.

DO

Take a class at the New Orleans School of Cooking and learn how to make dishes like gumbo and jambalaya.

Enjoy live jazz music or take a swing dancing class with the Nola Jitterbugs Dance School.

Take a guided tour of a plantation like Oak Alley or Laura Plantation. If history isn't your thing make it a swamp tour and snap pics with the crocodiles.

EAT

For trendy lunch and amazing southern inspired cuisine stop at Sylvain. The decor is amazing and the food is incredible. Try the fried chicken sandwich!

For a romantic dinner for two, eat in the garden courtyard of Cafe Amelie - call ahead to make reservations!

To indulge your sweet tooth you have to make an obligatory pit stop at Cafe Du Monde and indulge in a sugary beignet.

SHOP

Wander up and down Royal Street and maybe you'll find some treasures in the antique shops and vintage stores.

For the adventurous take a step inside Reverend Zombie's House of Voodoo shop for magic potions and jewelry.

To glimpse old world beauty and craftsmanship visit Bevolo Gas & Electric Lights Shop to see (and purchase) gas lit lanterns!
